Program Report

One-Day Training-cum-Awareness Program and Mock Drill on Disaster Management and Mitigation

Introduction

A One-Day Training-cum-Awareness Program and Mock Drill on Disaster Management and Mitigation was successfully organized on 15 July 2026 at the G28 room of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel College, Bhabua, Kaimur, under the joint auspices of the District Administration, Kaimur (Bhabua) and the Bihar State Disaster Management Authority (BSDMA), Bihar. The program was organized with the support of the State Disaster Response Force (SDRF) and coordinated by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college.

The primary objective of the program was to promote disaster awareness, strengthen preparedness, and enhance the emergency response capacity of students, faculty members, non-teaching staff, and the local community. The training emphasized the importance of disaster risk reduction and community resilience through scientific knowledge and practical demonstrations.

The technical sessions were conducted by Mr. Ashok Kumar Singh and his teammates, Mr Purushottam Kumar, CT/Sharan Kumar, and CT/ Rajeev Kumar from the State Disaster Response Force (SDRF). The resource persons provided detailed presentations and hands-on demonstrations on disaster preparedness, response, rescue, and mitigation strategies.

Major Areas Covered During the Training

- Introduction to disaster management and disaster risk reduction.
- Classification and characteristics of natural and human-induced disasters.
- Flood preparedness and flood mitigation measures, including evacuation planning, safe shelter management, and precautions during heavy rainfall and flash floods.
- Earthquake preparedness, including "Drop, Cover, and Hold" techniques, safe evacuation procedures, and post-earthquake safety measures.
- Awareness regarding weather-related disasters.
- Importance of early warning systems, emergency communication, and disaster preparedness plans.
- First Aid and Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) techniques, including basic life support (BLS), management of unconscious victims, bleeding control, fracture management, and emergency medical response.

The interactive sessions provided participants with valuable knowledge and practical skills to respond effectively during emergencies. The mock drill enabled students and staff to understand evacuation procedures, emergency coordination, and basic life-saving measures, thereby strengthening institutional preparedness.

The programme was graced by the President and organiser of the program Dr Mahesh Prasad, Associate Professor, Department of Economics, who appreciated the initiative and emphasized the importance of disaster awareness and preparedness in educational institutions. He encouraged students and staff to actively participate in such capacity-building programmes to ensure safety and resilience during emergencies.

The programme was attended by faculty members, non-teaching staff members, and a large number of students, NCC and NSS students, as well as local people, making it highly successful. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the District Administration, Kaimur, the Bihar State Disaster Management Authority (BSDMA), and the State Disaster Response Force (SDRF) for conducting an informative and practical training programme. The programme significantly enhanced disaster awareness, preparedness, and emergency response capabilities among the participants, contributing to the creation of a safer and more resilient academic community.
